

A Song dedicated to my first and last Scholars' School Srinagar

(Abrar Farooq)

In a place where knowledge gleams,

Scholars gather, chasing dreams!

A school of brilliance, a realm of thought,

Where minds are nurtured, wisdom sought.

Oh! Scholars' School, where minds take flight,

Guiding us towards the brightest height!

With open hearts and minds so keen,

We'll conquer worlds, our dreams unseen.

Teachers inspire, ignite the flame,

Igniting curiosity, fuelling the aim!

In every classroom, a journey unfolds,

Where wisdom and passion intertwine, untold.

From textbooks to friendships, bonds are formed,

In this place, a community is warmly adorned!

We'll cherish memories, forever hold dear,

Scholars' School, a place we revere.

Oh! Scholars' School, where minds take flight,

Guiding us towards the brightest height!

With open hearts and minds so keen,

We'll conquer worlds, our dreams unseen.

As we step forward, on paths unknown,

The lessons learned will be our own!

Scholars' School, a foundation strong,

In knowledge and growth, we'll forever belong.
